Indirect Fire from the Gaza Strip and the Sinai Peninsula

In April 2019, three rocket-launching* attacks were directed from the Gaza Strip at Israel, compared to 41 in March.

*Clarification: The number of launchings is the number of rockets/mortar shells actually launched during one indirect fire attack. For example: one attack may consist of three launches, that is, three rockets / mortar shells, and so it will be counted as one attack and three launches.
